

To open the frame of when an artwork happens and where an exhibition takes place, and to connect the activities of an exhibition with the activities of public and private life, Fanta-MLN presents its 19th exhibition at 21b Via Merano, Milan:

FROM NOW IN THEN

To be visited from the 17th of April to the 5th of June, 2021.

AN EXHIBITION

by Jason Hirata

Of three artworks executed by paid professionals, and developed between the artist and the organizers:

1. Painted Square, 2021
A permanent floor painting, executed by Edilmanca.
2. Four Framed Portraits, 2021
Prints produced by Paolo Nava and framed by Cornice Studio.
3. Car, 2021
A departures service for visitors to be transported from the gallery to a destination of their choosing on the day of the opening and every Saturday thereafter, executed by NCC Milano Services.

A public opening held from 2pm to 9pm on April 17th inaugurates the presentation.
